Recent Change! > Stress and Kids- Sarah Fritsch

10:30am-12:30pm - KCF I.I.C./CDA 3/Level 1 We all have witnessed the increasing pressures on children at younger and younger ages.

We will be discussing the cause and effects of stress on children. What stress and anxiety look like and what we as providers and teachers can do to help them cope.

Marketing and Branding your Company - Chef

Marshall O'Brien

10:30am-12:30pm -

You used to be able to get by being a baby sitter. That isn't what Millennial families are looking for today. How do you reframe how you look so you are relevant in today's world?

There will be a sample to taste.

Early Childhood Mental Health: Why Your Role

Matters - Kim Woehl

1:30pm-3:30pm - KCF I.I.C./CDA 3/Level 1

This workshop helps participants discover ways in which their early childhood role can nurture the emotional development of young children through interactions, practices, and modeling in order to build secure attachment relationships. Participants will examine what mental health means in young children and discuss specific strategies for providing consistency, responsiveness, and security in an emotionally healthy environment.

The Wonderful Ways They Play - Sara Mulso

1:30pm-3:30pm - KCF I/CDA VIII/Level 1

We are fully aware that play is the best form of learning, but are you intentional in how you plan your play with infants and toddlers? What do certain toys teach? What role do teacher-made materials have in supporting learning? This session will let you see how to not only maximize learning but also understand the opportunities that different toys offer to the children in your care.

The Power of Food - Chef Marshall O'Brien

1:30pm-3:30pm -

Calmer Kids and a better Performing You – We will show how to use food so that your kids are calmer and foods for you that will reduce stress and give you more consistent energy. There will be food samples.

CLASSES

Sensory Processing Disorder - Kim Woehl

8:00am-10:00am - KCF I.I.A./CDA 2/Level 1

This workshop describes the characteristics of Sensory Processing Disorder and how it may impact young children in child care programs. Each participant will have the opportunity to examine their own sensory preferences and apply that knowledge to the sensory needs of children.
Strategies for inclusion will be presented as well as local resources.

Learning Through Play - Sarah Fritsch

8:00am-10:00am - KCF I.I.C./CDA 3/Level 1

Have you ever heard the saying, "play is a child's job". We will investigate what a child is actually learning by playing with playdough, dressing up and the many other activities that keep them busy throughout the day. We will go through learning outcomes of specific play activities and how you can communicate these findings to parents.

Being More Efficient in the Kitchen - Chef Marshall O'Brien

8:00am-10:00am -

Knife skills, batch cooking, cook once serve twice, what can you cook ahead of time. There will be a hands on portion of the class to learn some skills.

Strengthening Your Communication Skills - Kim Woehl

10:30am-12:30pm - KCF VI/CDA VI/Level 1

In this workshop we will discover our own personal communication style. We will determine how this style can help us to be successful in communicating with parents, colleagues and many other relationships that we encounter as an Early Childhood professional.
